

Sinclair Broadcasting has a legal obligation to serve the public interest. I think it's outrageous that they'd air an anti-Kerry political message and hide behind the fig leaf of "news" to try to avoid the equal time requirement.

Will there be any repercussions for this obviously illegal and politically biased act? Do we have a real F.C.C. or is it merely a rubber stamp for the large media conglomerates? I'd really like to know.